

About Us

Career Centre

Working at Avena Foods

- Are You Looking for a Challenging Career Opportunity?
- Interested in working for a small, dynamic organization in the Gluten-Free food ingredients industry with a compelling growth and success story?
- Like to work for an organization where top product quality and food safety are the core business priorities?
- Keen on working for an innovative organization, where your skills will help shape the direction of the business and you can see the results of your contribution?
- Do you thrive in a small, flexible organization where you can participate in almost all facets of the business?
- Do you want to work in a positive team environment where you're engaged and passionate about what you and your colleagues do every day?
- If your answer is YES, then consider becoming part of the Avena Foods team.

How We Work

You can tell a lot about Avena Foods by our values, ethics and service principles. We've set down expectations that guide our behaviors and relationships with each other and with our customers, supplier partners and other stakeholders.

What We're Offering

The Avena Foods team has a track record of success, defined by our relentless pursuit of excellence. We are passionate about building strategic partnerships, enhancing the customer experience and growing our business.

Avena Foods prides itself on attracting top talent with several things in common: a desire to work in the Gluten-Free food ingredients industry, a belief in our organization's mission and a willingness to work in heart of the Canadian prairies, Regina, SK.

Check our careers page regularly for rewarding career opportunities. We offer challenging work, competitive pay and an attractive benefits program.

Current opportunities

Avena Foods is currently not hiring for any positions. Check back here for updates.

